

Syracuse University Showcase Weekend November 18th through 20th, 2011

Kent County Fillies Bantam BB Girls Hockey team travelled to Syracuse New York to participate in a weekend tournament with 3 other teams from Canada and US.

Kent County Fillies, North Halton Twisters, Kingston Ice Wolves and Clifton Park Eagles all competitively played against each other on the same ice as the Syracuse University Womens Hockey team plays. Each of the teams had a personalized tour of the Syracuse University Campus including discussions on academic and varsity sports programs with Associate Coach Graham Thomas.

Four teams, their coaches and parents attended games Friday and Saturday evening on campus to cheer on Chatham's own Hokey Langan and Team Canada member Natalie Spooner who play for the Ohio State University vs Syracuse University girls hockey games. Kent County Fillies Coach Don Britton arranged with Syracuse University for this weekend to be possible, leaving a lasting impression in the minds and hearts of all players and their families. Everyone left the weekend of university life with an appreciation for what it takes to make it to the level of play that young women like Hokey have.
